PERSONALITY TYPE

THE TEACHER

You are an idealist organizer, driven to implement your vision of what is best for humanity. You often act as catalysts for human growth because of your ability to see potential in other people and your charisma in persuading others to their ideas.

STRENGTHS

Peacekeeping - You not only work to promote harmony and morale while deflecting potential conflicts, but you are also deft in persuading and motivating others to get moving in the same direction.

Communication - One of the many keys to your success is the ability to communicate proficiently across diverse media.

Persuasiveness - You are known for your powers of persuasion and are generally effective in getting people to do what you want them to do.

Leadership - You have a solid social circle and are likely to be the ones planning events and finding opportunities to get people together.

WEAKNESSES

Leap before looking - Passionate and headstrong, you tend to dive in head first without fully examining or investigating the endeavour in front of you.

Overcommitment - Though you thrive on being a little overwhelmed, you can easily become over-committed because you are genuinely excited about life and all of the opportunities you see.

Struggle to make tough decisions - When making decisions, you can struggle with information that seems to lack a human element. Hard logic, impersonal reasoning and data-based conclusions can be difficult and even undesirable.

Too selfless - Because you prioritise people and the needs of others, you may not be properly in touch with your own needs and can struggle, at times, to express them if you fear that doing so may create conflict or disunity.
