PERSONALITY TYPE

THE INSPECTOR

You are a responsible organizer, driven to create and enforce order within systems and institutions. You are neat and orderly, inside and out, and tend to have a procedure for everything you do. Reliable and dutiful, you want to uphold tradition and follow regulations.

STRENGTHS

Perseverance - Your main and most admirable strength is perseverance; you do not give up. This trait is advantageous and can be that which sets you apart in your career.

Planning - Because of the Judging component, you have a very clear command of time and priorities. You are quite skilled in planning, organizing, mapping out schedules and following agendas.

Detail orientation - You notice holes, gaps, errors that broader thinkers don't. You like facts, details and numbers without the emotional or interpretive fluff.

Loyalty - You also have a natural instinct to protect and defend. Loyal, reliable and committed, you can be depended on to guard everything; from your families to our nation and these are responsibilities you proudly assume.

WEAKNESSES

Stubbornness - While you will be admired for your unwavering commitment to duty and your sense of what is right and proper, the downside of this is that you can be stubborn, inflexible and dogmatic.

Tactlessness - Your fierce commitment to truth can also get you in trouble in interpersonal dealings. You tend to speak without much consideration for the feelings of others, thinking it is always more important to be truthful than to make people feel good.

Guilt - You take your work, commitments and really all aspects of life quite seriously and work hard to plan well and to make wise decisions. When things don't go as planned, however, you may blame and beat yourself up about it, second guess your decisions and suffer guilt.

Resistance to change - Suspicious of new advances and ways of doing things strain you. You also often stifle creativity or fail to appreciate the benefit of approaching old problems in new ways.
