PERSONALITY TYPE

THE COMPOSER

You are gentle caretakers who live in the present moment and enjoy your surroundings with cheerful, low-key enthusiasm. You are flexible and spontaneous, and like to go with the flow to enjoy what life has to offer.

STRENGTHS

Observant - You are super-observant and seldom overlook any details. However, what makes you so gifted as a problem-solver is that you know how to synthesize what you sense and experience into a coherent whole.

Bold and spontaneous - Craving fun and excitement as you do, you know that life is short and that we must seize the moment before it passes us by. You live extremely active lives, boldly pursuing many hobbies and undertaking many exciting projects.

Principled - You will not sacrifice your principles for anything, and you have little tolerance for cheaters, liars or hypocrites.

Individual - You prefer to dance to the beat of your own drummers, relying on your own instincts to reveal what is right, good and true. You simply believe that human nature is complex and varied and that everyone's path should be unique.

WEAKNESSES

Too sensitive - Kind and considerate, you are so determined to keep the peace that you frequently suppress your unpleasant emotions or ignore your own needs.

Indecisive and unpredictable - You are innovative, flexible and adaptable. But there is a fine line between flexibility and indecisiveness, and sometimes you are so open-minded that you are unable to make firm and final decisions.

Easily bored - You are doers who learn through direct experience and imitation. If the instruction you receive seems too abstract or theoretical, you view it with suspicion, believing this style of teaching to be boring or irrelevant.

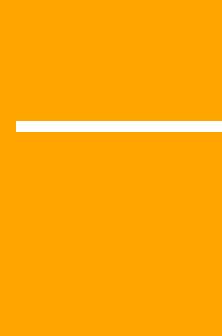

Lack of future planning - You don't always perceive the full consequences of your actions, or understand how the present inevitably shapes the future. As a result, you may struggle with financial affairs, be ambushed by emergencies or fail to notice the way unresolved conflicts can poison relationships over the long term.
